6. Other Business

Ryon Hadley: the 6-year-old who lost her leg is in good spirits and the police department will be doing something for her. We are staying busy. Next week we have crossing guard training.

Tyson Jackson. The crossing walks should be painted before school starts. 4300 N is done. We will be starting 800 W project. The chip and seal will be done in the spring to give it more time before winter.

Amy Mabey: CM Nelsen & CM Urry have asked for a subdivision checklist. We are working on the ordinances to update them and then we will present the checklist. The changes need to be made by February. We had a discussion with the soda shop people. We are moving forward with the ADA project and the veteran's monument and the parking will be displaced. Weber County's Emergency Management is requesting involvement in Code Red. Mayor Call: we need more information. Amy Mabey: we are going to have quarterly meetings with each of you.

CM Nelsen: I have questions on lacrosse.

CM Urry: there will be the Food Trucks this Monday and a Children's fair.

Mayor Call: the next Founder's Day is June 22, 2024
